

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1863-06-24

Letter from J. E. Johnson to S. Cornelius, 1863 Jun 24

J. E. Johnson

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Johnson, J. E., "Letter from J. E. Johnson to S. Cornelius, 1863 Jun 24" (1863). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 1143.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/1143>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Madison, Wisconsin.
June 24th. 1863.
Dear Brother Cornelius.

I desire to introduce to you, the bearer, Mr. John Muir, a young gentleman who has been attending the University of Wisconsin, located him, & who expects next term to commence himself with the University in Ann Arbor. You will find in him the highest modesty, united with the most excellent moral & Christian character; also mechanical genius of a very high order. He is here greatly esteemed & I know you will gladly endeavor to render his stay in your city pleasant & profitable. He will be able to give you information concerning 06079

matters with us. So then I said not write concerning them. I should be exceedingly glad to receive a letter from you. I have baptized 32 since I came here. My family join me in most sincere Christian love.

Yours in the service
of Christ

J. E. Johnson.